

The recipients of the 2008 AKCHO Awards are:

- Willard Jue Memorial Award for Volunteers:
Phil Flash, Mercer Island Historical Society
- Willard Jue Memorial Award for Paid Staff:
Barbara Williams, Eastside Heritage Center
- Charles Payton Award for Cultural Advocacy:
E.B. Dunn Gardens for *Preservation Plan for Historic Gardens
- Single Impact Event:
Center for Wooden Boats (Carving Cultural Connections Program) for the installation of the Klawock Honor Pole
- Long Term Project Award:
Denise Ottoson for creating websites and databases for the United Daughters of the Confederacy and the Sons of the Confederacy
- Virginia Marie Folkins Award:
Jack Kelly for *Jack's History of Fall City
- Heritage Education Award:
Dori Wuepper, Canyon Park Junior High School teacher and History Day educator
- Exhibit Award:
Ballard Historical Society for Historic Marker Project
- Youth Award:
Seattle Girls School for *Most Dangerous Women Project

4Culture's Heritage Tourism Award (Golden Rain Globe Award) presented to the Northwest Railway Museum, located in Snoqualmie. The Northwest Railway Museum was recognized for this honor for excellence in heritage tourism.